

Pauline Núñez
Data Dissemination Specialist
U.S. Census Bureau-Data Dissemination Branch

Pauline Núñez develops and conducts training programs on U.S. Census Data for state/local government, tribal nations, Congressional Districts, nonprofit, health care, and economic development organizations throughout South Central Texas, the Texas-Mexico borderlands and Arizona. She has over 25 years' experience in community development micro lending, grant writing, marketing and business development for small businesses and non-profit management.

Pauline is an avid yoga practitioner, enjoys hiking in the great Colorado outdoors and supports the visual/performing arts in the Denver metropolitan area.

Pauline received her Master of Arts in Applied Anthropology, Catholic University of America, Washington, DC; Bachelor of Social Work, Our Lady of the Lake University, San Antonio, TX.

You can reach Pauline at Pauline.nunez@census.gov and 303-204-6271.